OFFICIAL DECLARATION OF SECOURS POPULAIRE FRANCAIS CONCERNING THE MURDER OF SAMUEL PATY TEACHER OF THE HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGE IN CONFLANS----------
« Do not let ourselves be invaded by hatred, let us act! This Friday, October 16, at the exit of the college of Conflans-Saint-Honorine Mr. Samuel Paty, teacher of History, Geography and Civics, father of a family, was beheaded because, at the heart of his profession, he explained the meaning of freedom of expression. All the leaders, facilitators, volunteers, friends of the French Secours Populaire (SPF), join in the mourning that strikes his family, like all of society in our country, deeply attached to freedom of expression. The Secours Populaire Francais assures the family, the teacher's colleagues as well as the entire educational community and college students of our country of its solidarity and expresses its condolences to them.
« BECAUSE FOR 75 YEARS HUMAN HAS BEEN OURS »----------
Because "for 75 years, everything that is human has been ours", the Secours Populaire Français, as Article 1 of its statutes indicates, has not ceased to act "in the spirit of the universal declaration of human rights “with its children's movement“ Copain du Monde “, has the will to teach children to love rather than hate themselves. The SPF calls for the promotion and enhancement of all acts of generosity that exist every day in France, in Europe and in the world and encourages all those who share this desire to actively contribute.This assassination requires that in the face of barbarism and hatred of the other, the whole of society is mobilized without leaving anyone behind and develop gestures of humanity and solidarity. The SPF continues and will continue to work on this. »“¦/
